

2022 Australian Christian Teen Writer Award

writer

The Australian Christian Teen Writer Award discovers and encourages writers of the future.

A $1,000 prize is given for the best unpublished manuscript by an Australian citizen under 18 years of age. Supplementary awards may be given.

The winning work will explore a Christian perspective or theme and incorporate, explain or encourage Christian life and values. Entries are judged with an eye to the:

Original nature and content of the work.

Literary style, including suitability for the target audience.

Contribution that the work makes in meeting a need for Christian writing in Australia.

Conditions of entry

The award is open to Australian citizens normally resident in Australia under the age of 18 on 31 May 2022. Entrants will need to supply proof of age and citizenship, and details of their Christian community.

Entries must be the original and unpublished work of the author. Only one entry per person.

Entries close on 31 May 2022. Late entries will not be accepted.

Each entry must be submitted as a hard copy with a completed Entry Form stapled to the front cover. The entrant's name must appear only on the entry form. Entries will not be returned.

A digital copy (Rich Text Format is preferred) must also be supplied—recorded on a memory stick or sent by email to: admin@sparklit.org

An entry will be disqualified if it is handwritten (entries must be word processed and printed), if the Entry Form is absent or incomplete, or if the word count exceeds 15,000 words or is not stated. There is no minimum word count but a length between 3,000 and 5,000 words is suggested.

Entries are read and judged by a panel selected by the SparkLit Council. If, in the opinion of the judges, no entry meets the standard expected, no award will be made. The judges' decision is final. The organisers reserve the right to withdraw any unsuitable entry.

Copyright of submitted work will remain with the author. The names and photos of winning entrants and copies of their winning entries may be published at the discretion of the Society.

Finalists will be notified in late August 2022. The awards will be announced and prizes presented during the SparkLit Awards Night in Melbourne in early September 2022. All entrants and interested persons are encouraged to attend the awards event.

If you have any queries please email admin@sparklit.org or telephone 1300 13 7725.

Megan Southon

from NSW won the 2021 Australian Christian Teen Writer Award with Daisies in Winter. This mature and thoughtful story explores the internal world of an adolescent on a courageous journey of self-acceptance. The struggle and the triumph is learning to reach out to God daily, even when all you can say is, "God, why am I like this?"

Phoebe Worseldine

from Victoria won the 2020 Australian Christian Teen Writer Award with Through Smoke and Flames. This portrayal of a devastating bushfire through the eyes of a child is set in a convincing landscape of suspense and desperation. An encouraging and hopeful story for everyone who doubts and quails while waiting "for the wind to change."
