

AUSTRALIAN CHRISTIAN LITERATURE AWARDS CALL FOR ENTRIES

2022 Young Australian Christian Writer Award

The Young Australian Christian Writer Award discovers and encourages writers of the future. A $2,500 prize is given for the best unpublished manuscript by an Australian citizen under 30 years of age. Supplementary awards include a $1,000 prize for writers under 18 years of age.

The winning work will have a Christian perspective or theme. Entries are judged with an eye to the: Original nature and content of the work.

Literary style, including suitability for the target audience.

Contribution that the work makes in meeting a need for Christian writing in Australia.

Conditions of entry

The award is open to Australian citizens normally resident in Australia under the age of 30 on 31 May 2022. Entrants will need to supply proof of age and citizenship, and details of their Christian community.

Entries must be the original and unpublished work of the author. Only one entry per person.

Entries close on 31 May 2022. Late entries will not be accepted.

Each entry must be submitted as a hard copy with a completed Entry Form attached to the front cover. The entrant's name must appear only on the entry form. Entries will not be returned.

A digital copy (Rich Text Format is preferred) must also be supplied—recorded on a memory stick or sent by email to: admin@sparklit.org

An entry will be disqualified if it is handwritten (entries must be word processed and printed), if the Entry Form is absent or incomplete, or if the word count exceeds 45,000 words or is not stated. There is no minimum word count but a length between 10,000 and 30,000 words is suggested.

Entries are read and judged by a panel selected by the SparkLit Council. If, in the opinion of the judges, no entry meets the standard expected, no award will be made. The judges' decision is final. The organisers reserve the right to withdraw any unsuitable entry.

Copyright of submitted work will remain with the author. The names and photos of winning entrants and copies of their winning entries may be published at the discretion of the Society.

Finalists will be notified in late August 2022. The awards will be announced and prizes presented during the SparkLit Awards Night in Melbourne in early September 2022. All entrants and interested persons are encouraged to attend the awards event.

If you have any questions please email admin@sparklit.org or telephone 1300 13 7725.

The 2021 Young Australian Christian Writer Award was won by Rémy Chadwick for his collection of essays Creativity and Faith in Postmodern

Australia. Chadwick employs a range of styles and genres—homage, homily, literary criticism—to explore the ways in which the crucified and resurrected Christ challenges our fickle and competitive consumer culture. He is insightful, polemical and persuasive, and his voice is versatile and resounding.

The 2020 Young Australian Christian Writer Award was won by Daniel Li for his short story Being Mulaney. In this honest and gentle narrative, a young Christian confronts the loneliness of leadership, burnout and a family history of suicide. A timely reminder to bear one another's burdens and point each other to the grace and peace that surpasses understanding.

The 2019 Young Australian Christian Writer Award was won by Eden Annesley. In her novel Tom and Eva, suspicion and hatred envelop a small town following the death of two women. The humour, tension and bullying among the teenage protagonists is real and topical. From beginning to end the narrative is strong, nuanced and engaging. As the mystery unfolds, God's love and care are gradually revealed.
