SPARKLIT AUSTRALIAN CHRISTIAN LITERATURE AWARDS

CALL FOR ENTRIES

2025 Australian Christian Book of the Year Award

The Australian Christian Book of the Year Award is given annually for an original book written by an Australian citizen. The award recognises and encourages excellence in Australian Christian writing.

The award carries a prize of $3,000 for the author, and a framed certificate for the author and publisher.

Entries are judged with an eye to the:

Original nature of the work.

Literary style, including suitability for the target audience.

Design, layout, cover, typography and illustrations.

Contribution that the book makes in meeting a need for Christian writing in the Australian situation and in the Australian market.

Entries are read and judged by a panel selected by the SparkLit board. If, in the opinion of the judges, no entry meets the standards expected, no award will be made. The shortlist will be released on 1 July 2025. The 2025 Australian Christian Book of the Year will be announced during the SparkLit Awards Night in Melbourne on Thursday 21 August 2025. All entrants and interested persons are encouraged to attend the awards event.

If you have any questions please email admin@sparklit.org or telephone 1300 13 7725.

Submission of entries

Entries must be submitted by 31 March 2025.

Four copies of each title submitted and a $50 entry fee per title are required. There is no limit to the number of titles a publisher or author may submit. A new entry form is to be completed for each title. Books submitted for the award will not be returned.

A high-resolution image of the cover (minimum 1200 pixels high) and portrait of the author (landscape orientation, minimum 2000 pixels wide) must be supplied.

Shortlisted titles

If a book is shortlisted its publisher will supply SparkLit with ten additional copies. Shortlisted authors agree to attend the awards event in Melbourne on Thursday 21 August 2025. If an author's availability is in doubt, SparkLit must be informed immediately.
